ICSC 2010

Fourth IEEE International Conference on Semantic Computing

September, 22-24, 2010

Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA, USA

The field of Semantic Computing addresses the derivation and matching of the semantics of computational content to that of naturally expressed user intentions in order to retrieve, manage, manipulate or even create content, where "content" maybe anything including video, audio, text, processes, services, hardware, networks, etc.
